INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC TUITION POLICY TERMS and CONDITIONS

- Lesson fees are paid directly from parents to the private teachers.
- It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that they attend lessons at the appointed times. If a student fails to attend a lesson without prior notice, the lesson will not be refunded or rescheduled.
- If a student forgets to bring their instrument on the day of a lesson, the lesson will go ahead either with a borrowed instrument or in the form of a theory or aural lesson. Lessons will not be refunded or rescheduled for this reason.
- In the case where a student is sick and will miss a lesson, notification must be given to the teacher concerned either the night before or, at the very latest, on the morning of the lesson. If notification is received the lesson will be rescheduled at the discretion of the teacher. If notification is not received the lesson will not be refunded or rescheduled.
- Where the teacher is absent, the lesson will be rescheduled where possible or credited to the next term.
- One term's notice, in writing, of intended withdrawal of your child from music lessons is required.
- Failure to pay music fees by the agreed upon date will result in lessons being discontinued until such a time as fees are paid in full
- Please return this form to Student Reception
 - Your information will be given to the Head of Music and the tutor. The tutor will contact you regarding lesson times, etc. within 7 days. If this has not occurred within 7 days, please contact the Head of Music via email – elizabeth.cumming@mamre.nsw.edu.au
